

INFORMATION

Deaf Aims is based on the belief that we need to aim high in life in whatever we do.

To achieve better outcomes for life, both personally as well as in your working life, we need to think about how we can get the best chances of being able to develop life skills to help you live more independently.

Teaching hours:

- Mondays & Thursdays
10am—4pm
- Saturdays
1 - 7pm

aiming high in life

A service for Deaf people

Do you want to develop life skills?

Do you need support to prepare you for work?

DEAF AIMS

Deaf Aims is based at Slough Deaf Centre

- Improve and develop functional skills in English & Maths.
- Develop independent living skills in healthy lifestyles, cooking and travelling.
- Get support to identify jobs you would like to do and learn interview skills.
- Experience and solve problems in how you can relate with people, both formally and informally.
- Enjoyable learning!

Individual 1:1 sessions
or group sessions

Taught by Alison Hayes and Yasmena Yaris, both qualified
Teachers of the Deaf with level
6 BSL qualifications

BUILDING YOUR CONFIDENCE

We can provide support and techniques for social interactions and interview skills.

HOW WILL THIS HELP ?

- Feel confidence with your learning and knowing how to interact with other people.
- More able to make choices in life.
- Become more independent in how you choose your life..
